The report was ordered placed on the Minutes of Synod and prayer was offered by Rev. Henry Ward, D.D.

On the recommendation of the Stated Clerk, the following papers were referred as follows:

1. An Overture from the Presbytery of Binghamton relating to the appointment of a Director of Religious Education, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

2. An Overture from the Presbytery of Utica relating to economical management of the expense accounts of the Synod, was referred to the Committee on Finance.

3. A Complaint to the Synod of New York from Rev. Robert C. Hallock, D.D., against the action of Chemung Presbytery in licensing Mrs. Lillian Herrick Chapman to preach the gospel, was referred to the Committee on Judicial Business.

The Treasurer of Synod presented his report which was accepted and referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Trustees of Synod, Mr. John T. D. Blackburn, Secretary, presented the following report for the year closing September 30, 1919, which was approved. One meeting has been held.

The officers of the Board are: Rev. Anthony H. Evans, D.D., president; Edwin T. Hanford, treasurer; John T. D. Blackburn, secretary.

The invested funds in the hands of the Trustees total $28,394.32, the same as last year. The balance on hand October 1, 1919, is $398.46. The total expenses for the year have been $23.87 to which should be added $50 for the premium on the Bond of the Treasurer.

Of the income $1300 has been paid to Varian Banks, Treasurer of Home Missions toward the salary of those in charge of work for foreign people and $26 to the same treasurer toward the salary of the pastor of the Italian Mission of the First Church of Schenectady, N. Y., a total of $1326.

The income of $250 from the Catherine Roseboom legacy has been paid as before, to the Trustees of the Church of Cherry Valley, N. Y.

Rev. Allen Macy Dulles, D.D., was requested to publish the sermon he preached to the Synod last evening.

The Committee appointed to revise Rule IX as to Standing Committees (see Minutes of Synod 1917-18 pp. 36 and 38 recommended the addition of the following Clause No. 11.

“The Standing Committees shall ordinarily consist:

(1) “For Bills and Overtures” and “Judicial Business” of three ministers and two elders.

(2) The other committees shall ordinarily consist of two ministers and one elder except that the Committee on the records of the Presbyteries (No. 8) shall consist of as many members as shall be found necessary to examine the records.

Also that No. 10 be amended so as to read: Such permanent Committees to consist each of three ministers and two elders.

The recommendations were adopted and Standing Rule IX was thus amended.

Rev. R. F. Roberts of the Welsh Church, Rome, Rev. H. H. Peabody, of the Rome Baptist Association, and Rev. Richard C. Hughes, D.D., of the Synod of Wisconsin, being present were invited to sit as Corresponding Members.

The Committee on Men’s Work, Rev. Carl W. Scovel, Chairman, offered its report and after an address by Rev. Charles H. McDonald, D.D., it was accepted and the following recommendations were approved:

The principal features of the report are as follows:

The organization of Church Men for religious work is steadily increasing. It is in harmony with the unionizing of the laboring men which has become a momentous fact in the Commercial World.

The Modern Age suggests to the church a closer fraternization of all denominations, a closer fellowship, sympathy in council and determination of effort on the part of all the men of a congregation. Your Committee does not insist on any one form. It may be a large Men’s Bible Class, a Men’s Club as well as the ideal Brotherhood. But it should win all your men to social acquaintance and united effort for Church improvement for local and National reforms and for Bible Study.

The General Assembly’s Men’s Work under the tactful, inventive and aggressive leadership of the Secretary Dr. William F. Weir is annually growing in its influence its amount of helpful literature, and in its support. However we regret that the Synod of New York falls behind Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois in giving to this great cause. Only $353.94 was contributed to this work by only 29 of our 934 churches.

We urge our churches to heartily support this great task of arousing the church. A much more extended work is planned for this year with new officers and secretaries in New York City and Chicago.

We recommend:

1. The organization of all the men in each church that they may be ready on all kinds of aggressive religious activities.

2. The appointment by each presbytery of a key-man to promote these organizations and keep a careful list of their presidents and secretaries.

3. That a much more generous offering be given this year to this most important work.

Rev. Charles McKenzie, D.D., presented the report on Foreign Missions which was approved after an address by Rev. Ernest F. Hall, D.D., and its recommendations were adopted, save the last which was referred to the Committee on Finance. The summary of the report is as follows:

Foreign Missions have come through the war with a record of which the church may well be proud. Eighteen of our 27 missions are in lands which were directly involved in the war. Some of our missionaries were imperilled by the violence of fighting men. Other missionaries were endangered by mobs. Others suffered from pestilence and famine. Millions of money and tons of food contributed by the generous people of our land were distributed by foreign missionaries, our own missionaries practically doing all the work in Persia and Syria. We hear much of, and honor greatly our soldiers of the army, but let us honor highly the soldiers of the Cross—few scattered, isolated, poorly equipped, in hot and unhealthy climates, far from home and its privileges not for a campaign, but as a life-work.

And still their work was wonderfully successful under all the circumstances.

And yet, in spite of large encouragements, the year has been one of grave financial anxieties and of increased responsibilities. The home churches indeed did not fail. Their gifts for Foreign Missions were greater than ever before. The difficulty has been precipitated by the fact that the character of the work of the Board of Foreign Missions has caused expenditures which, from the nature of the case, did not fall upon the agencies whose work is in the United States. Not only did the Board have to meet the higher cost of living, as agencies everywhere did, but it had to pay heavily increased charges for ocean freight and transportation, the restoration of damaged property, loss in exchange, and enlarged Missionaries' salaries. The cost of conducting a given work has increased on the foreign field as well as at home. In Turkey sugar is a dollar a pound and flour $90 a barrel; in Syria, bread is $5.75 for a five pound loaf; in Colombia, tea is $2 a pound, milk 35 cents a quart, potatoes $11 a bushel; in Persia, wheat is $30 a bushel and rice is 50 cents a pound. For ten years prior to the war we could buy a Chinese dollar at an average rate of 47 cents. It now costs 80 cents. At one time it rose to 98 cents. To give our devoted Missionaries the same number of native coins that they had before the war, would about cut their salaries in two and leave them to deal unaided with the increased cost of living. Of course, the Board is not leaving them unaided. When the Church sends devoted, consecrated men and women to distant lands we know that it proposes to stand by them. Therefore, in spite of the anxiety of the financial situation, the Board relieved the Missionaries of the loss of exchange in the fields where it was heaviest, and made increases in salaries of from 10 to 20 per cent, this loss for China alone having amounted to $104,000, this year in excess of the loss that was anticipated at the beginning of the year. A special expenditure in the Syria Mission, compelled them to spend $298,037 more than their ordinary budget, and this heavy burden has been necessarily thrown upon the Board. For the new fiscal year, the Board had to take into consideration not only this deficit, but the fact that the Missions were compelled to ask for an increased grant in view of the fact that they can not keep their schools and hospitals open on the former budget and that the Missionaries and native helpers cannot live on the former basis. Therefore, relying upon the response of the church to the appeal of the Foreign Missionaries and the special presentation of the New Era Movement, with the conviction that the Board dared not assume the responsibility of reducing the appropriations of the Missions, and that the church did not intend to cripple the work that has been built by the toil of devoted Missionaries, the Board has guaranteed a total budget of $2,600,000. With the deficits and special obligations reported from China and Syria which must be met, the total needs of the Board for the year will be $3,220,536. This sum looks formidable, but anything less would mean retreat, and that, too, at a time when the summons of God to advance was never more imperative and the opportunity never so splendid.

The obligation that is upon us is one that challenges every atom of energy that we possess and tries the material out of which our faith has grown. What cannot be done, must be done. The war has shown us the way. It exposed some of the worst passions of which the human race is possessed. It also discovered some of the finest qualities that man is capable of exercising. Now that peace is in the way of being settled, what shall become of all these splendid characteristics? Swords must be beaten into ploughshares. Energies that have been devoted to further the cause of war must now be converted into forces that work for the good of the race.

We would stress the following important matters and recommend them for adoption by Synod.

1. That in view of the extraordinary situation arising out of war conditions the Churches resort to extraordinary measures to make up the huge deficit carried over from last year and the necessarily increased appropriations made out for the current year which are much less than the demand from the field would have warranted being made.

The pastors be urged to secure as far as possible in their congregations the names and addresses of persons who are able and who might desire to invest money with the Board on the Annuity Plan, to bring this plan to their attention, and to send the names with information to the Board.

That pastors be urged to direct the attention of well-to-do people in their congregations to the importance of remembering the Board of Foreign Missions in their wills.

The Committee heartily approves the plan of contributions to specific work from Sunday Schools and individual donors.

2. We urge that all Chairmen especially cover in their reports to Presbyteries the work of their respective areas and that they conduct an aggressive all-year program to meet the insistent demand of the day.

We recommend that the Foreign Mission Committee cooperate along lines with the New Era Movement Committee, and that they adapt the functional program to the organization plans of the Board of Foreign Missions.

We rejoice in the splendid achievement of the Woman's Board of Foreign Missions and desire thoroughly to cooperate with them in carrying out their splendid plans in our churches.

3. We urge our Churches to adopt as far as possible the full educational program offered by the Board. A School of Missions should have most prominent place in our calendar for this year. Whether the method of Missionary study in prayer meeting or at the Sunday Evening services be followed, or that of setting apart a certain part for continuous and concerted study in all of the organizations of the church, or whether some other method better adapted to local conditions be looked upon as a most sacred obligation.

Furthermore in order to secure the adoption in all of our Churches of a program more adequate to meet the necessities of this hour, we are planning to hold a conference of all the Presbyterian Chairmen of the entire Synod and for this purpose we request the grant by Synod of the sum of Two Hundred dollars to make this possible.

The Committee on Synodical Home Missions presented its report which was distributed. Addresses were made by Rev. U. L. Mackey and Thomas H. Dinsmore, Ph.D., looking especially to the increase of ministers' salaries.

The following resolutions of the report were adopted:

1. That the report of the Permanent Committee of Synodical Missions be received and when adopted made a portion of the Minutes of Synod.

2. That the action of the Permanent Committee in April, 1919, approving the budget containing appropriations for Synodical Home Missions in the State for the twelve months, beginning July 1, 1919, together with balances of July 1, 1919, in detail as follows, be and hereby is approved:

For Workers commissioned by Presbyteries	$47,593.07
For Workers Commissioned by Synod:
Synodical Superintendent	4,456.68
Foreign Work	3,830.78
Adirondack Work	6,513.96
Church Extension	4,455.04
Administration Expenses	2,361.81
Publicity	681.00
Emergency	9,925.00

$79,817.34

3. That the Permanent Committee on Synodical Home Missions be authorized to prepare and file with the Board of Home Missions a budget for its work for the year beginning July 1, 1920, the same to be presented in due course to the Synod of 1920 for its consideration and approval.

4. That the election of G. P. Conard as Chairman of the Permanent Committee for a term of two years be approved.

5. That the election of U. L. Mackey as Synodical Superintendent for a term of two years be approved.

6. That the election of DeWitt C. Hurd and G. P. Conard as members of the Permanent Committee for a term of three years be approved, and that J. L. Patton be elected to serve the unexpired term of W. S. Bennett.

7. That the Executive officers of the Committee be authorized to make such arrangements with the New Era Committee of the Assembly for Co-operative Work through out the Synod as in its judgment may seem wise and in harmony with this resolution that the arrangement for the joint engagement of the Rev. A. M. Forrester to serve as Pastor-at-large representing Committees on Home Missions and the New Era in the Presbyteries of Binghamton and Otsego be approved.

8. That Chairman G. P. Conard be appointed a representative of this Synod in the Home Mission Council in connection with the General Assembly of 1920 and that in the event of his inability to attend he be and is authorized to appoint an alternate.

9. That the action of the chairman in accepting the resignation of Rev. H. S. Huntington, Jr., releasing him to engage in the work of the Interchurch World Movement be approved.

10. That the services of H. S. Huntington, Jr., from May 13, 1918 to May 27, 1919 with the Red Cross in Syria, and the Rev. A. J. Dean from June 27, 1918 to July, 1919 with the Y. M. C. A. in France, both of them members of the Synodical field force, be made a matter of the records of Synod.

11. That the action of the chairman in assigning the Synodical Superintendent to the State Survey Work in connection with the Interchurch World Movement be approved on the arrangement as set forth in the body of this report.

12. That the action of the Superintendent in securing as Assistant Superintendent for a period of six months beginning October 1, 1919, Rev. John B. Kelly who serves in this capacity without expense to the Synod or this Committee be approved.

13. That the Synod approves the appointments of the Committee on Adirondack Work as follows:

(a). That we request each Presbytery having interest in the Adirondack lumber camp work, to appoint one of its members who with Mr. Maddox will serve as a Committee on Adirondack Work. This Committee will be expected to take up and consider any changes in the present plan of work, meet with and advise the Secretary from time to time as to the conduct of the work, and receive a report which can be passed on to the presbyteries once a year, so that they may be fully advised as to the nature and extent of the Lumber Camp Mission.

(b). In view of the Interchurch World Movement and its projected survey that the presbyteries should offer to provide such religious services for the unchurched portion of the Adirondack field as the Interchurch Committees judge will be adequate for the religious needs of those communities.

(c). The unification of the entire work in the Adirondacks seems not to be feasible but it is the judgment of the Committee that we should recommend to the Synod's Committee that the services of Mr. Maddox in co-operation with the Committee proposed above, should be offered to the presbyteries for such supervision of Churches and preaching stations within the bounds of the respective presbyteries as in their judgment would be of the best service to their work.

14. That we should continue by every judicious effort to combine the work of churches in sparsely settled communities so that ministers may have work somewhere near adequate to their strength and support that will meet their needs and to this end the authority of presbyteries should be exercised wherever necessary.

15. That whereas the foundations of our free country are threatened by some foreign-born emigrants who swell the ranks of the lawless and irreligious in our land, we lay upon the churches and members of this Synod the pressing duty of proclaiming Jesus Christ, as Savior and Master to the foreign colonies at our doors and of leaving no stone unturned to bring them into full citizenship in America and in the household of God.

16. In view of the fact that the Metropolitan district in all its relationships is not merely a vital influence and factor, but also a national and world influence and factor, therefore its religious influence and well being cannot be received as merely of local or state concern but is of vital and immediate national and world importance, therefore be it resolved, that Synod's Committee on Home Missions be and hereby is authorized to co-operate with other established church agencies in the more efficient co-ordination and prosecution of Home Mission activity in the Metropolitan district.

The Committee to nominate the Woman's Committee on Home Missions offered its report which was accepted. The persons named were appointed and their names were ordered printed in the Appendix to the Minutes.

The report of the Woman's Synodical Committee on Home Missions was presented. It was accepted and its substance is as follows:

Last year owing to the prevailing epidemic, the meeting could not be held and was a disappointment, but the work through the year has been well maintained.

The reports show an increase of societies, now 656 and 798 additional members secured. There seems to have been a loss of subscriptions for the Home Mission Monthly and of Over Sea and Land.

The work among the young people is not encouraging.

How to interest the "rising" generation is a serious problem today. We are forced to the conclusion that there must be some defect in the home, upon which rests the responsibility of nurturing and teaching the children.

In 1917-1918 our Synodical Society contributed to Home Missions and to its Freedmen's Department $97,513.50. The past year we report $95,636.28 nearly two thousand dollars less than the year before. We rejoice that the deficiency is no greater and we hope for a better report this year. The New Era Movement has met with a cordial response in many societies. In closing this brief summary we would echo the words of the Apostle Paul as we appeal to you, Fathers and Brethren, "Help us women laboring with you in the Gospel."

May all Christians everywhere feel that personal service in Christ's name and for His sake is the only service, which shall christianize and evangelize our land.

The following action was taken:

"The Synod of New York in session at Rome, N. Y., Oct. 22, 1919, regrets to learn of the continued illness of our President the Hon. Woodrow Wilson and to place on record our sincere sympathy for him and expresses our earnest prayer for his speedy recovery."

It is ordered that this resolution be signed by the Moderator and Stated Clerk and telegraphed to the President.

ALEXANDER ALISON, Moderator,
J. WILFORD JACKS, Stated Clerk.

In connection with this action, prayer was offered by Rev. Harlan G. Mendenhall, D.D.

The Committee on Judicial Business, presented the following report:

The Committee on Judicial Business found the complaint against the action of Chemung Presbytery in licensing Mrs. Lillian H. Chapman to preach the Gospel, in order, and recommend that the matter be referred to a Judicial Commission for trial, said Commission to be appointed by the Moderator. The recommendation was adopted and the Moderator constituted the Judicial Committee as the Judicial Commission in the case.

A recess was then taken until 1:30 o'clock P. M.

WEDNESDAY, October 22, 1:30 o'clock, P. M.

Prayer was offered and business was resumed.

The Committee to nominate the Trustees of Synod reported and the following persons who were recommended were duly elected by ballot:

For the terms expiring in 1921: Rev. Francis S Haines, Rev. Louis O. Rotenbach, William Thomson, Frederick B. Post.

For the terms expiring in 1922: Rev. Robert Watson, D.D., Rev. J. Milton Thompson, D.D., Elders—William K. Gilchrist, William H. Seward.

Rev. Arthur Newman then addressed Synod in the interest of the American Bible Society. In this connection it was ordered that the Synod urge each church within its bounds to contribute annually to the treasury of the American Bible Society.

The following action was taken:

Resolved, That in view of the imperative demands made by the advanced cost of living, presbyteries are urged to the immediate consideration of and action upon the status of pastoral support within their bounds, as recommended by the last General Assembly.

That to effect a positive result, we recommend, that presbyterial authority be exercised in refusing the installation of a pastor, when a field has failed in its call to provide for the minimum salary set by presbytery and to take such steps to secure an increase to such minimum where present salaries are below the mark. That the Synodical Committee on Home Missions be instructed through its co-operation in the Interchurch Census or by other agencies to secure a report from the Moderator or Stated Clerk, of each presbytery, detailing the result of such presbyterial effort to attain this aim, such results to be presented to the next Synod for consideration.

The Committee on Religious Education presented its report through Rev. Herbert H. Field. An address was made by Rev. Calvin W. Laufer, D.D. The report was accepted and its recommendations were adopted save the last which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The summary of the report and its recommendations are as follows:

There is a rather serious condition that we are facing in our Sunday School work to which Synod's attention should be directed. The announcement has been made by the Council of Evangelical Churches that 271,712 pupils have been lost in Sunday School membership in the last year. The loss in our own denomination is more than 40,000. No one can question the seriousness of the situation. The falling off is real and ominous and the Church should know the facts. There are some who would have it otherwise. They would not "frighten" the people with alarming statements. Better to trespass on their feelings than to betray a righteous cause through silence. The spirit of America is to have the truth. We must respect that spirit always, for it is one of our finest possessions. So if the Sunday School condition is serious let the people know about it. The Sunday School belongs to the people. But we must not stop with merely announcing that the Sunday School situation is serious. We must go to the limit in discovering the means for improvement. We must go to the root of the malady and there effect a cure. Unless we do, the present serious situation will be repeated and that, next year. The fact is we have a real and deep-seated problem to solve and the solution is not so easy a matter as may appear offhand. Considered in its entirety, our task is something more than bringing back strayed pupils and filling the places of absent teachers. The Sunday School has before it right now a new field of work. We have at hand a construction period that challenges our best thought and effort, and be assured if we do not accept the challenge, the Church will be woefully handicapped. Never have we had such splendid opportunities to make our Christian education real and faithful. Can it be that after all, right there is the measure of the seriousness of the situation? Not so much what we have lost but what we have to gain should occupy our minds. We must be thoroughgoing in our procedure. We must seek for those causes fundamental to the present condition and, finding them, apply our energies to removing them.

Your Committee is agreed (a) That our Sunday School work must be put on a sound educational basis. The fundamental principle is that the Sunday School is a school.

The supreme aim is the continuous development of the religious nature. Every school, therefore, should grade the pupil according to the plan of departmental organization and introduce the graded lessons and annual promotions. These lessons are grounded on educational ideals. The child is a developing being and needs religious nurture suited to his growing capacities. Let the Church realize that it takes time as well as effort to develop a Christian character.

(b) It becomes more apparent each year that trained teachers in our Sunday Schools are an absolute necessity. An opportunity must be provided the present staff to become better prepared for its work.

Such a school should be conducted in every village and city. Each church must also begin to insure a future supply of able workers by starting their choicest young people on training courses. We have "trusted the Lord" to supply our needs, especially the need of teachers, as though that were a matter wholly without the sphere of our responsibility. One neglect of teacher training has done much to produce the present Sunday School slump.

The teacher must know in whom she believes. There must be no doubt in her mind and heart about the imperative need of consecration to God. She must be as loyal to the Christian ideal as was Christ himself—put it first always. Christ must be real to her. The Sunday School must produce Christians in order to justify its existence—boys and girls, young men and women, adults, too, who are purposed to serve God and man as did our Lord. The business of the teacher is to “warm” the pupil’s life into responsiveness to that purpose. We cannot “hold” our boys and girls unless we are warmly evangelistic. Surely our great Sunday School should prayerfully undertake the goal set by the New Era Movement of the Board and add each year, for the next five years, two hundred thousand pupils to the enrollment and multitudes to unite with the Church.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That Synod’s attention be called to the appalling loss in Sunday School membership during the past year, the loss in our denomination being 40,000, with the hope that Synod will advise all Presbyteries to launch campaigns to stem this outward tide in our schools.

2. That in view of this serious situation we heartily endorse the plan of the Board to launch a church-wide effort to keep the attendance of the Sunday School above an average of seventy per cent of enrollment.

3. That the Board’s New Era Program of Religious Education, including Teacher Training, Missionary Instruction, Vocational Guidance, Family Altar, Daily Vacation Bible School, should have wide acceptance and should be promoted by all our churches and schools.

4. That Summer Schools of Methods, such as conducted at Pocono Pines, Auburn Seminary and Stony Brook, be given even more generous promotion in each Presbytery than before.

5. That Presbyteries urge Young People’s organizations to adopt the Board’s Young People’s New Era Program.

6. In order that the Committee may be given the opportunity to advance constructive measures by conferences, etc., the sum of $300 be asked.

Rev. Henry K. Grose of the Synod of Illinois and Rev. Harold L. Bowlby of the Synod of New Jersey, being present were invited to sit as Corresponding Members.

The Committee on Sabbath Observance, Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D., Chairman, offered its report which was accepted. Rev. H. L. Bowlby was given five minutes to address the Synod in this connection.

The report was approved and its recommendations were adopted.

The substance of the report is as follows:

The six societies within the bounds of this Synod, engaged in the cause of Sabbath Observance, which were particularly described in the report of this Committee last year, have continued in the service during the year now on review. They have all felt the effect of the war now happily closed.

Your Committee has loyally obeyed Synod's instructions in guarding, to the best of its ability, Sabbath interests in the legislature.

About the usual number of adverse bills were introduced in the New York legislature last winter. For the sixteenth time in annual succession, the bill popularly known as the "Jew" bill was introduced. It would permit Jews and other Seventh-day people to do business on Sunday. This was the most alarming of the adverse bills, inasmuch as it fixed no limits to the kinds of business that might be carried on nor to the number of hours. The Jew firms under that bill might have Christian partners and thus do business seven days in the week. Christian firms would be compelled in self-defence to take Jew partners for the same purpose and the whole sabbath would be gone for it would be wide open all over the State for all kinds of business, traffic, manufactures and sports. The bill has formidable support and came dangerously near passing. The fight against it was successful, and the bill was defeated.

The baseball and moving picture bills were not so important, since they applied only to two or three lines of business and would give them only the hours after 2 P. M. on Sundays. But they were widely advertised and attracted more general attention. "The opposition to these bills, The Evening Post says, "was not as well organized as in previous years," and the bills were passed. This was the first defeat that the Sabbath cause has ever met in defensive legislation.

These bills, however, did not repeal the old laws. They only authorized the Council of each city and the Governing Board of each village to permit the playing of all sorts of baseball on Sunday and to permit moving pictures by those who have been exhibiting them in defiance of the law, to continue their Sunday exhibitions. The moving picture exhibitors who had observed the law were penalized to the extent of having to apply to the City Council or village Governing Board for permission to exhibit on Sunday.

Thus the legislature has sidestepped its duty in passing bills prohibiting baseballs and movies on Sunday or permitting them. The bills are clearly compromises, and the final solution is left to the municipalities.

In effect, the proposed law prohibits Sunday baseball as a public sport in one paragraph, yet in the next paragraph each and every municipality of the State is permitted to nullify the legislative prohibition.

This is wrong from every standpoint. It must be determined by the legislature as to what is lawful on Sunday, and by no other governing body. Among all our laws, there is no similar statute found.

GENERAL RULE: "The proposition that by our Constitution general powers of legislation are conferred exclusively upon the legislature and that this body may not escape its duties and responsibilities by delegating such legislative powers to the people at large, must be regarded as so thoroughly established that it needs no discussion." People v. Kennedy, (1913) 207 N. Y., 533, 154 App. Div. 558.

There are two periodicals devoted exclusively to the cause of Sabbath Observance; The Bulletin published by the New York Sabbath Committee, and The Leader published by the Lord's Day Alliance.

The Lord's Day Alliance publishes a list of 29 titles of standard and permanent literature.

The list of the New York Sabbath Committee's publications contains 100 titles. One of the late additions to this list is a booklet of 34 pages entitled "The Sabbath in Army and Navy," containing Sabbath Orders of Presidents and Army and Navy Officers from Washington to Daniels, which has passed through several editions and been distributed not only through the army and navy, but all over our country and in parts of many foreign countries. It has been translated into the French and Chinese languages by scholars in France and China. The New York Sabbath Committee possesses a valuable library of 250 volumes on the Sabbath.

The cheering results of efforts sustained through many years under the divine blessing in the recovery of our Sabbath from its former neglect, the enactment and enforcement of adequate Sunday laws and their successful defense through thirty-six legislatures, and the maintenance of a Sabbath-keeping regime in our army and navy under the auspices of our National Administration and the help of our popular General-in-chief, whose orders have been distributed through army, navy and military camps, furnish a vantage ground for the Sabbath cause which we cannot afford to lose.

It may be doubted whether the Sunday question ever stood before the country in more prominent aspects, and in a light more forcibly inviting and compelling than at present. Certainly no previous period has made more imperative demand for the conservation of this institution, and revealed more clearly how it underlies and is vital to our system of self government.

No cause suffers more severely on the one hand by neglect, and on the other hand by indiscretion, than that of the Sabbath. A community or state may lapse into the grossest habits of Sabbath profanation through the timidity or indifference of its friends and through ill-digested, spasmodic efforts at reform which tends to increase the evil. But with the traditions, the customs and the laws of the land as defences of the rights of citizens, and with reverence for the sacred character of the institution pervading the community or state, no practical reform is more feasible than that for the proper observance of the Sabbath, if wisely and patiently prosecuted. Every enlightened conscience, if awakened, will take the side of the Sabbath. All men, unless wedded to vice and folly, concede its social, sanitary and humane benefits, and may be induced to favor the restraint necessary to its enforcement.

In the cities of this and all other states, a large and increasing number of business men are turning to the Sabbath as a necessity. Butcher and barber associations are using their influence to enforce a better observance of Sabbath closing. Florists, funeral directors and undertakers are advocating Sunday closing ordinances, and, anticipating the enactment of such ordinances, are, in many cases closing on Sundays. This growing movement may be actuated more by business and sanitary considerations than religious sentiments, but in common with the United Cigar Stores Company, who have adopted Sunday closing, and the directors of the shoe shining parlors, many of whom are doing the same, they realize the need of a weekly rest day, and out of respect for religion they desire their rest day to fall on the Holy Sabbath.

There are many evidences that we have reached a more general and growing recognition of the civil and religious claims of the Sabbath. And we have attained a vantage ground of an awakened public conscience that we cannot afford to lose by indifference, or trifle with by neglect.

It is only when its civil and religious claims are confounded and men are made to believe that the religious observances of the Sabbath is to be constrained by law, that they oppose the requisite legal protection of the rights of the communities and of citizens to their quiet Sabbaths. Let it be distinctly understood that Sunday laws are enacted and enforced solely in the interest of good order and public morals, and for the protection of inalienable rights,—while the religious observance of the day is left to the voluntary promptings of the conscience enlightened by the Word of God, and prejudice will be disarmed, and the power of opposition broken.

It is evident that the public is not out of sympathy with Sabbath Observance.

The problems of Sabbath Observance are more widely and variously discussed than ever before. The secular press of the entire country has given unusual attention to the Sabbath question. Editorials and contributed articles have kept the subject before the eyes of the people, arousing the apathetic and the indifferent to active effort for or against Sabbath Observance. We now have a more intelligent idea of the mind of the people on the nature of the Sabbath and its claims for observance. While our opponents have been more perfectly organized during the past year, our friends have been more thoroughly aroused. Requests for literature and information have been more frequent.

We recommend:

1. That Presbyteries be urged to arrange for public meetings in the interest of this great cause and that they give these societies assurances of their hearty sympathy and co-operation.

2. That those who are willing to co-operate with the efforts in the legislature for the protection of the Sabbath against adverse bills be advised to communicate with those who are in charge of Sabbath interests in the Legislature in good time, so that our efforts in the future may not be futile in any case.

3. That pastors and elders be requested to become acquainted with their Senators and Assemblymen and to use their personal influence for all moral legislation.

4. That pastors, churches and individuals be urged to extend their co-operative and financial support to the societies that are devoted to the Sabbath cause.

5. That the Synod most earnestly appeals to the Congress of the United States to enact wholesome laws for the protection of the Sabbath in the District of Columbia.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

DUNCAN J. McMILLAN,
Chairman.

The following action was taken:

In view of the terrific attacks upon our Christian Sabbath by powerful organizations which have in a measure successfully invaded our State Legislature, having secured the enactment of a commercial Sunday motion picture law, and a professional and amateur baseball Sunday law, with admission fee,—the local governing official body approving,

Resolved, That the Synod of New York commends the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States for its untiring efforts, in defence of the Lord's Day, its purpose to secure the repeal of the above laws and to prevent further adverse amendments to the State Sunday laws; that in order to make its work the more successful, in line with the recommendation of the General Assembly, May 19, 1919, we request our churches, which have not already provided, for it to set apart a substantial apportionment of their benevolent moneys for this Cause and send the same to George M. Thomson, Treasurer, 156 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y.

Resolved, That we commend to all our churches—so far as such can be made practicable, the sending of delegates to the 31st Annual Convention of the Lord's Day Alliance of the United States, to be held in Washington, D. C., December 11-14, 1919.

Rev. J. Lyon Caughey, D.D., presented a report in connection with the New Era Movement which was accepted and the following action was taken:

(1) Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., meeting in Columbus, Ohio, in May, 1918, appointed a New Era Committee to arouse the Church to a keener sense of its obligations in the new day:

(2) Whereas the experience of the New Era Movement during its first year has shown results to which all the departments of our denomination give approving testimony, churches by the hundred having been quickened and our denomination having assumed a most prominent place among the leading churches of today.

(3) Whereas the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., meeting in St. Louis, Mo., last May received with great enthusiasm the report of the First Year's Work of the New Era Movement, acknowledging its achievements, re-affirming its endorsement of the New Era Movement, continuing its

Committee, recognizing the need and importance of the work and commending thereby its purposes to the entire church and

(4) Whereas, the Synod of New York was hindered in holding its regular meeting of last year, owing to the nation-wide epidemic of influenza, thereby preventing any action being taken relative to the New Era Movement.

Therefore, be it resolved, That the Synod of New York in its present meeting in the city of Rome do hereby place on record its hearty endorsement of the New Era Movement and commend it to the several churches within our bounds and at the same time appeal to our ministers and laymen to co-operate as fully as possible in carrying out the program of the movement with its great Five Year Objectives.

The following Committee on the Work was appointed: Rev. John L. Caughey, D.D., and Elders Philip Ritter of Brooklyn and William A. Hubbard of Rochester.

A resolution looking to the financing of the Work was referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Synod then engaged in the Celebration of the Lord's Supper. The Moderator presided and conducted the services assisted by Rev. Anson P. Atterbury, D.D., and Rev. George Dugan, D.D.

The following ruling Elders of the local church served in the distribution of the elements, A. A. Gillette, M.D., W. W. Parry, Judge R. C. Briggs, Prof. George R. Staley, Frederick M. Orton, Albert E. Jones.

Recess was taken until 7:30 o'clock P. M.

WEDNESDAY, October 22, 1919, 7:30 o'clock P. M.

A popular meeting was held in the interest of Home Missions and the New Era Movement.

The Rev. William H. Foulkes, D.D., Secretary of the New Era Movement was the first speaker and was followed by Rev. John McDowell, D.D., a Secretary of the Board of Home Missions.

After singing "America" and the Apostolic Benediction Synod adjourned to meet at 8:45 o'clock, Thursday morning.

THURSDAY, October 23, 1919, 8:45 o'clock A. M.

Prayer was offered and business was resumed.

The Minutes of yesterday's sessions were read and approved.

The Judicial Commission reported as follows:

In the matter of the licensing of Mrs. Lillian Herrick Chapman by the Presbytery of Chemung on September 24, 1918.

The above entitled matter was referred by the Synod of New York to the duly appointed Judicial Commission of the Synod, the appeal having been made by Rev. Robert C. Hallock, D.D., of that Presbytery.

The commission convened at 1:45 P. M., and after hearing the Appellant and the Respondent, and after full open discussion, the following are the Findings of the Judicial Commission:

1. That the action of the Presbytery of Chemung, as set forth in the complaint and conceded by the respondent was of such irregularity as to demand the rescinding of the said action by the Synod; and in addition the Synod here instructs the Presbytery of Chemung to withdraw the license granted by said Presbytery to Mrs. Lillian Herrick Chapman.

2. The Judicial Commission would remind the Presbytery of Chemung, that there is an orderly way of securing a change in the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church and that by Overture to the General Assembly; and we would counsel the Presbytery of Chemung to proceed in accordance with this orderly method.

The Synod directed the placing of the decision upon its records.

The Committee on the Next Place of Meeting reported that a very cordial invitation had been received by the Synod to hold its next meeting in the First Church of Binghamton, N. Y., and recommended that it be accepted. The recommendation was adopted.

The Committee on the Minutes of the General Assembly, reported recommending that the minutes be carefully read by all the ministers, and the recommendation was approved.

5. That a sum not exceeding $200 be granted to the Foreign Missions Committee to defray the expenses of the Chairmen of the various presbyteries to and from the places of meetings.
6. Your Committee would recommend that the assessments of the coming fiscal year be fixed at six mills per communicant as before.
7. That the sum of $59 be granted to the Executive Commission to defray the expenses of its meeting in 1918.
8. We call attention to the following communication received from the Presbytery of Utica and referred to your Committee, but suggest no action:

"In view of the greatly increased contributions of the churches for missions and other activities of the church, and recognizing that the increase may, without intention on the part of its disbursements lead to minor extravagances in expense accounts, the Presbytery of Utica respectfully recommend that extreme care be taken in checking and auditing expense accounts, and further that payment for travelling expenses, refreshments, meals, or entertainments furnished in connection with Committee meetings, conferences, etc., be limited to the smallest possible amounts consistent with dignity and comfort, and also that members of Committees who are willing and able to pay their own expenses in connection with Committee Meetings, conferences, etc., be encouraged to do so, to the end that every dollar available be used in the most direct missionary, educational and evangelistic work possible.

9. Your Committee would report that they have examined the books, vouchers and bank books of the Treasurer and are pleased to state that the same are correct as per vouchers on file and that the balance in the bank as reported by the Treasurer is $1,438.18 and $1000 in Liberty Bonds.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported as follows and its recommendations were severally adopted:

1. An Overture from the Presbytery of Binghamton relating to the appointment of a Director of Religious Education:

It is recommended that the following action be taken,

Whereas, the General Assembly in 1913 created a department of Religious Education and entrusted the same to the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work with instructions to organize and promote vigorously this work;

Resolved, That the General Assembly be asked to take measures to inquire into the attitude of the Board and its efficiency in relation to and respect to the matter of religious Education as committed to the Board

2. The following paper offered on the floor of Synod was referred to your Committee. The Synod of New York being deeply impressed with the importance of the work of Religious Education of our youth within the bounds of the Synod hereby directs the Executive Commission at the earliest possible date to organize a Department Committee or Commission on Religious Education to have charge of all Sunday School, Young People and Religious Educational work, to employ a Secretary or Superintendent of the work who will be under the Control of the Executive Commission of the Synod or the agency for this purpose which it may create, to request from the Board of Publication and Sabbath School work such sum or sums as the Executive Commission may think necessary for the proper prosecution of the work, and further to take all necessary action to promote the work of religious Education and Sunday Schools within the Synod. It is recommended that it be referred to the Committee on Religious Education.

3. A resolution relating to the endorsement of the League of Nations was moved and added amendments were also moved. Both resolution and amendments were referred to the Committee, which recommended that no action be taken.

4. In relation to the Overture relating to a change of the Constitution of the Presbyterian Church, so as to ordain Women to preach the gospel, it is recommended in view of the fact that this matter (see Minutes G. A. 1919, pages 267, 268) has been referred by the General Assembly to a Committee to report to the next General Assembly, that no action be taken.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures having no further business before it was discharged.

Rev. Anthony N. Petersen reported that the work among the Freedmen was most encouraging. Our church is not losing its interest in the work. Larger gifts are made from the Church and from the Sabbath Schools. The churches of our land during the year have increased their contributions over 9,000 dollars.

Last year the contributions of our Synod from all sources $33,155, was about $30,000 less than the amount given by the Synod of Pennsylvania. Sometimes comparisons are offensive, but just why this great difference should be, I know not.

Some say that Pennsylvania is nearer the problem hence the greater interest. But the negro problem has ceased to be altogether the problem of the South. Somewhere I have seen statistics which showed a greater number of lynchings north of the Mason and Dixon's line, and that for the year 1918. Whether that is true or not we certainly have a very important and serious negro problem in our northern as well as our southern states. Almost ten per cent of our criminals in the North are negroes.

At Sing Sing, where I serve as Protestant chaplain, there are over one hundred negroes, and out of 24 men in the "condemned cells" awaiting electrocution for murder, four are negroes. No class of people are more easily led astray, and no class is so easily led into the straight and righteous way of life. In supporting our work for the negroes in our southern states one must be awake to the needs of work in their behalf in our northern states.

We thank God that the soul of the Ethiopian may be changed and that he may be white in the blood of the Lamb.

We brought the negro to our shores and thereby brought into our life a race problem. He has multiplied and settled in most of our States and with him has come a new phase of our industrial and labor problem. But everywhere and always he is a religious problem for the church of Christ to tackle, and help solve. Some of the rarest and finest souls are negroes who have been converted to the Lord Jesus Christ.

The negro can fight—he can work—he can pray. Let us help him pray, and praise the Lord.

The report was approved and in connection with its presentation, Rev. Samuel J. Fisher, D.D., President of the Board of Freedmen, addressed the Synod.

The Committee on the Board of Education presented its report which was accepted and after addresses were given by Rev. Richard C. Hughes, D.D., a Secretary of the Board and Rev. Hugh Moran, Student Pastor of Cornell University, its recommendations were adopted:

This year the main part of our work has been in connection with the student work at Cornell University.

Dr. Hill, the new secretary of the Board, in his first report to the General Assembly defined the aim and purpose of our work at student centers in the following words:

"The purpose of the enterprise is 'to lead students to faith in God through Jesus Christ; to lead them into friendship and service in the Christian Church; to promote their growth in Christian faith and character, especially through the study of the Bible; and to influence them to devote themselves, in united effort with all Christians, to making the will of Christ effective in human society and to extending the Kingdom of God throughout the world'."

There is no place in our country where the opportunity to do this is more vital and far reaching than at Cornell University—where we have nearly a thousand Presbyterian students.

The last time we reported to Synod, Rev. Herbert Moore was our Student Pastor in charge of that work. At that time the Synod authorized the Committee to co-operate with the Board of Education in raising a sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the purpose of securing a property that would serve as a home for the resident pastor and a social center for Presbyterian students and a permanent Endowment for the support of the work. On account of the war this object had to be abandoned for the time being. However, a little over a year ago, there was an opportunity to secure a valuable property, which was admirably adapted for the work we were then doing, at a very low figure. After conference with the representatives of the Board and the local Committee it was agreed that the property should be taken over by the General Board of Education at a figure something less than twenty thousand dollars and that we should endeavor to raise that amount within the Synod.

About this time it seemed wise to your Committee to grant the request of our student pastor for a leave of absence for one year to do work among our soldiers in France. During his absence the work at Cornell was ably directed by Mrs. Moore who used the newly acquired home and social center to splendid advantage. This leave of absence was later extended three more months in order that Mr. Moore might serve the students in arms encamped at the University of Pittsburgh. As a result of that work Mr. Moore was later called to the work of Y. M. C. A. Secretary in that University and to the Committee's great disappointment and sincere regret he felt it his duty to accept the call. Just at this time a new movement began to make itself felt, which, after a great deal of conference and most careful and searching study resulted in a comprehensive co-ordination of all the evangelical religious forces at work in Cornell under the direction of R. H. Edwards one of the ablest Christian workers in this country.

This means that the Presbyterian Student Pastor shall hereafter be a member of the staff of the University Christian Union, which position will give him a more immediate and vital touch with the student body. Mr. Hugh Moran, a man unusually qualified for the service to be rendered has been called to this position. He is a graduate of Leland Stanford University, a Rhodes scholar, studied theology at Oxford; a Missionary to China; preparatory and high school secretary of the International Committee of the Y. M. C. A. and for the last three years war work secretary giving exceptionally able service in Siberia in connection with the Trans-Siberian Railway. His wife is said to be a very delightful woman and "socially gifted."

They are now on the ground and will soon be settled in the new Presbyterian house which is commodious and comfortable and admirably adapted for their work. It will bring in a steady revenue. The Committee found that the third floor was not essential to our work and could at a small expense be converted into a comfortable flat which can be rented to some of the workers at a good rent without in any way depreciating the value of the property.

Christian Work at Cornell never presented so great an opportunity as at present, and the Christian Church was never more sanely and strongly lined up for its task there than it is under this new movement and we look for very unusual results. The success of this undertaking will mean a very definite impetus to comprehensive co-operation in constructive Christian service in every educational center in this country.

When the representatives of the General Board of Education appeal to the churches of Synod for the money necessary to put our part of this work on sound financial basis your Committee sincerely hopes that they will meet with an immediate and hearty response.

We would also call special attention to the resolution adopted by the last General Assembly, see page 208 of the Assembly's Minutes and reads as follows:

"5. That the Assembly approve the policies of the Board as set forth in pages 22 to 23 of its Report, concerning aid to Colleges, work at university centers, recruiting for the ministry and other forms of Christian service, and aid to students preparing for these vocations; and that all churches be urged to send their offerings for education directly to the Board without designation for a particular purpose, the Board to make arrangements with synods, when necessary, so that assurance may be given that a fair portion of the church offerings may be used for each department of the Board's work, no departments to benefit at the expense of the others."

We recommend:

1. That the new Committee on Education when appointed shall be authorized to appoint a special Committee to direct the work at Cornell University and that in this appointment it be not limited to its own members.
2. That the Synod vote the sum of $100 for the purpose of defraying the expenses incident to the Committee's Work.

The Committee to consider the claims of the New York Sabbath Committee and that of the Lord's Day Alliance on our churches presented its report and it was laid on the table.

The Rev. Judson Swift, D.D., addressed the Synod in the interest of the American Tract Society, and the following action was taken:

For 94 years the American Tract Society with untiring effort and splendid achievement has proclaimed the Gospel Message by means of the printed page. It is now, as hitherto, serving and strengthening the Evangelical Churches, by ministering to the religiously neglected, but potential leaders of tomorrow who must be christianized to save the church and the world.

The society while continuing the most important departments of its work, has with its customary adaptability, helped to meet the great war-time need by the publication and distribution of more than one and a half million volumes, booklets and tracts for the soldiers and sailors, and is now rendering a unique service for the Americanization of the millions of non-English speaking population in our midst, by the publication of the Manual of "American Citizenship" and leaflets on the American home, the American church, and the American Workman.

The society having been a pioneer in the field, is now meeting the challenge of exceptional opportunities in Latin America by new and approved publications in the Spanish language, and here, as elsewhere, providing material for the use of the churches, and by its missionary colporteurs successfully ministering to those who otherwise would be unreached.

The world has revealed the fact, both in America and abroad, that the most effective method of reaching the people, and securing definite action is by means of the printed page.

Forces hostile to the family, the State and the Church, have been quick to recognize this fact, and to act upon it and are now flooding the United States with their baneful literature.

The American Tract Society, realizing that it faces the greatest opportunity of its history is using its experience and equipment in counteracting the alarmingly destructive anti-christian propaganda by the circulation of positive and constructive evangelical literature.

Therefore Resolved, that the Synod heartily approves and endorses the unique, indispensable and world-wide service of the American Tract Society, and earnestly commends it for generous support and urges its pastors and sessions to include the needs of the Society's work in its financial budget for an annual offering.

Synod then took a recess until 2 o'clock P. M.

THURSDAY, October 23, 2 o'clock, P. M.

Prayer was offered and business was resumed.

The Committee on the Board of Church Erection renewed the recommendations of last year and asked the approval of the Synod upon them which was granted. They are as follows:

1. That the Board be commended for the improved type of ecclesiastical architecture suggested in its sketches, and that it be requested to consider the wisdom of maintaining a department of consulting architect.
2. That the Board's aim to secure a Manse for every Congregation desiring one, meets with the hearty endorsement of this Synod, and that we counsel all of our churches to consider making special contributions for the Manse Fund.
3. That pastors be asked to have regard to the missionary aspect of this work and to be thoughtful to present the needs of the Board to their respective congregations, apart from the solicitation of funds.
4. That Presbyterial Committees on Church Erection be requested to advise congregations, which have prospects of financial growth, to apply for long time loans instead of grants; thereby assuring the return of the funds for future use.
5. That Presbyterial Home Missions Committees be counseled to consider the procuring of manses for our weak churches as a means to permanent increase of the pastor's salary.
6. That Sessions of churches which have hitherto received assistance from this Board make inquiry to see that their temporal officers are making periodic repayment in accordance with agreement.

GEO. H. FELTUS,
Acting Chairman.

The Committee on Ministerial Relief and Sustentation, Rev. Henry A. Porter, Chairman, presented its report of which the following are its main features:

The Consolidation of the Sustentation Fund with the Board of Relief has finally been completed. The frequent changes by death and removal have hindered the work, yet there has been substantial progress.

The churches during the year have increased their gifts 14% and the gifts have gained 10%. The total assets in the two departments are something over seven million dollars.

There has been progress but it ought to be accelerated. It is time that the ten million ought to be raised this year.

As was declared in the last General Assembly, "No New Era Movement" will be at all satisfactory that does not put this Board in such a position that every minister in the church can feel that he can go ahead and preach the Gospel undisturbed by the fear of want in old age."

At present the need seems to be getting far away from the supply. While one hundred of those who were being aided last year were called away to that better land, more than that number have been added to the roll. The number has now reached 1,715 names, five hundred having been added during the last five years. Last year the average apportionment to each one was less than 340 dollars. To the 900 widows the average apportionment was one hundred and eighty dollars. Among those who received these pittance were many of the noblest and saintliest men and women of the church.

Every member of the Board of Relief wishes that a much larger amount could be given to each annuitant, but they are sternly limited by the limited liberality of the Church. While striving to stimulate this liberality, Secretary Davies overstrained his strength and died.

He says "Rarely do we have sufficient money in hand to meet our obligations, each month, but it is a work of faith, hoping the money will come in soon, but this month all our resources have failed us and we had to borrow $10,000, so that when the checks come back our account will not be overdrawn. The increased cost of living has thrown an unusual burden on our Board and led us to face a very serious financial situation."

Still while Dr. Davies was straining himself to the breaking point to meet the emergency, 4,104 churches, nearly half of our churches were making no offerings whatever for this cause and only three of our Synods contributed as much for it as they drew out. New York Synod was one of these three, but our State only gave $1,396 more than we drew out. We must not diminish our gifts to this treasury. The aged servants of Christ and the widows of our brethren need more, rather than less, the coming year. Some have thought that the munificent bequest of Mrs. Sage of $800,000 has put the Board beyond the need of liberal contributions. But the legacy is not yet available and if it were, it would not average more than twenty dollars for each annuitant.

The Board is still striving to reach its ten million endowment, and an item of ten million for the Sustentation Department has been included in the New Era Budget.

Secretary Hunter urges upon the younger ministers, the privilege as well as the duty of membership in the Sustentation Fund.

It is hoped that the full amount may be reached before the next General Assembly. It is not necessary to remind all Presbyterian ministers under 60 years of age, that they can secure a pension at one-fifth its cost, the church paying the rest, a pension depending on years of service, payable at seventy or sooner in case of disability or death. Thus the benefits of this fund come to him or to his family automatically, regardless of all his other resources.

Notice also the "homes" controlled by the Relief Department of the Board. One for those in the early stages of tuberculosis at Albuquerque, New Mexico. Others at Newton, N. J., Newburgh, N. Y., Saginaw, Mich., and just opened the L'Amoreaux home at Ballston Spa., N. Y.

These are all real homes and we rejoice that such beautiful homes of comfort and rest have been provided for the aged servants of Christ. But there is also greatly needed a hospital where helpless and needy invalids and patients may receive constant and careful nursing. These cases should receive considerate and sympathetic attention.

The Board has not the funds to provide such a hospital, but presses this subject emphatically, appealing to the consecrated wealth of the church. Who in this Synod would welcome the opportunity to erect such a house of Mercy?

Secretary Davies wishes to bring this subject to the earnest attention of the young people in our Sabbath Schools. Would not Mother's Day be a fitting time for this and the Board will furnish programs and envelopes for the offerings.

The report was received and was accepted after an address on the subject by Rev. Frederick E. Stockwell, D.D., a member of the Board.

Miss V. M. White of the Woman's Board of Home Missions and Mrs. W. Lorimer were introduced to the Synod and the former spoke of the Freedmen's Work and of Foreign and Home Missions in connection with the New Era Movement. A vote of thanks was tendered the Woman's Synodical Committee for their work.

The Committee to collate the reports of the Committees on the Records of the Presbyteries reported, recommending that the records of the following Presbyteries be signed as approved: Albany, Binghamton, Buffalo, Brooklyn-Nassau, Cayuga, Champlain, Columbia, Genesee, Geneva, Hudson, Long Island, Lyons, New York, Niagara, North River, Otsego, Porto Rico, Rochester, St. Lawrence, Troy, Utica and Westchester.

1. That the Minutes of the Presbytery of Chemung be approved with this exception that the Presbytery licensed a person to preach the gospel who was not eligible according to the rules of the Church.

2. That the records of the following Presbyteries were not presented: Steuben, Syracuse.

The report of the Standing Committee was accepted and its recommendations were adopted.

Rev. Charles G. Ellis, Ph.D., presented the report of the Committee on Temperance which was accepted. Pending its acceptance, Rev. Andrew B. Wood of the Anti-Saloon League addressed the Synod. The report is as follows:

We congratulate the Christian and moral forces in American civil life on the notable achievements in temperance reform gained in the recent months. The unbelievable has happened. Since the last meeting of Synod the "nibbling" practices of Joffre in the stalemate of the trenches as applied in the war of temperance when we sought to gain town, county, city or state prohibition has been supplanted by one great offensive that has won the national prohibition amendment, ratified by forty-five states and prohibition has been made a part of the basic law of the land. Moreover, though an old time statesman has whimsically said that certain national legislators vote one way and drink another, congress seems in a fair way to enact rational enforcement laws.

Our rejoicing must be tempered by the fact that the liquor interests are not yet dead. Efforts will be made to repeal or at least to nullify the effect of the prohibition amendment.

Judges and other officials may be nominated and elected on the platform of anti-prohibition and when elected may be expected to be lax in the enforcement of the laws. Individuals also doubtless will prolong or cultivate intemperate habits by the home brewing and manufacture of various intoxicating drinks. Therefore the definite fight for temperance reform must be continued along lines of education, laws must be enacted and enforced. High minded officials must be elected and sustained in office.

Our participation in the world war has complicated our problem. Of our millions of young men sent abroad and dwelling for a time in wine drinking or beer drinking communities many have come home with undesirable habits and with modified views of the dangers of drink.

A war has its aftermath of problems of all sorts. While some rise to heights of splendid heroism and develop manly strength others come back crippled in body and warped in morals. After the Civil war we not only had an army of drunkards and moral wrecks but for a generation the whole country was overrun with an army of tramps.

The cigarette habit has long been recognized as injurious and our little boys are taught in the public schools its evils. Young men training for athletic events recognize that the cigarette shortens the wind and injures the nerves. Does it not seem strange then that when the young men of our country went into training for the greatest athletic contest of all time, men who were to endure the most searching of nerve tests were as a class deluged with cigarettes and encouraged to become slaves of the habit? Does it not seem strange that women and girls, ministers and Y. M. C. A. workers developed a cigarette sentimentalism that knew no limit.

The new conditions arising from the recent prohibition victory and the challenge of opportunity arising from the world war lay upon us as never before the obligation of a systematic, rational and comprehensive teaching and practice of temperance in all things and urges us to particular vigilance lest any good already gained be lost.

The Committee on Nomination of the Permanent Committees reported as follows which report was adopted:

(a) In order to conform to section IX, paragraph 10 of the Standing Rules which is "In every year of even numbers a Committee to nominate the Permanent Committees for the ensuing two years is to be appointed, and since no meeting of the Synod last year, (an even year) was held, the Committees were continued for a year.

The Committee recommends that the Committees appointed this year, be for one year only in order to conform to the standing rules.

(b) Again the action of Synod changing Rule of Section IX, paragraph 10, stating "Permanent Committees" are to consist of four ministers and three Ruling Elders is changed to three ministers and two ruling elders.

In accord with the change of this rule, we name only five men on each committee as follows:

The Moderator of Synod, Rev. Alexander Alison, D.D., was appointed a delegate to the Lord's Day Alliance Convention to be held at Washington, D. C., Dec. 11-14, 1919.

The Moderator was also appointed to bear the greetings of this Synod to the Synod of New England which is soon to be in session.

Also he was instructed to express to the President of Hamilton College the interest of the Synod in the excellent work it is doing.

The several Standing Committees were called and having no further business to present were discharged.

The Treasurer was authorized to pay the usual bills and salaries.

The following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted:

The Synod of New York now closing its Sessions of the year 1919 would hereby express its grateful appreciation of the Christian courtesy and abounding hospitality granted to us by the pastor, officers and members of the First Presbyterian Church of Rome, N. Y., and by this community, widely.

The gracious welcome extended to us by the Mayor of this beautiful city and the wide opening of its homes for our accommodation have touched our hearts. IX. SYNODICAL HOME MISSIONS

Received December 15, 1919

The regular order of our work was interrupted last fall by the epidemic of influenza, which made it impossible to hold the October meeting of the Permanent Committee. The Executive Committee met however, and presented its report with recommendations to the Executive Commission of the Synod, which approved our plans, as per minutes. There has been therefore but one meeting of the Permanent Committee during the year. This meeting was held at Auburn, in April, and adopted a budget for the coming year which will be presented in its proper place.

In almost every section of the state, the churches were closed for a period of a month or more on account of the influenza epidemic. There were many losses of members in our Home Mission churches, but very few among the ministers. Reports, however, regularly mention the fact that the churches were closed and the difficulty of getting the people together at the reopening time. One would naturally expect that there would be a large loss of financial support, but it appears that the churches have prospered financially as well as during normal years.

Our benevolence report, at any rate, will show a larger total than ever heretofore, and it is probable that a similar report will appear in the contributions for local work.

Our field force has not been up to its regular strength. Mr. Allen was on leave of absence, Mr. Huntington in Syria, Mr. Dean in France, and for three months of the year the Synodical Superintendent was dividing his time with the Brooklyn Church Extension Board. At the same time the New Era Movement was projected. A statement of the Synod's need of Home Mission funds was required. A survey for the discovery of this need engaged your Superintendent for a number of weeks during the late Fall. We were also pledged to the Board of Home Missions for assistance in financial campaigns. The Superintendent and

Mr. Maddox assisted the Board. The results appear in the increasing contributions. (See Table). No small credit for these increases is due to the untiring work of the Board's representative, the Rev. John B. Kelly.

With the success of the New Era Movement and the fact that it has taken over work that we have attempted to do in the past—the development of the Every Member plan, the campaigns for increased Home Mission offerings and the oversight of evangelistic effort—the fact that all these have been taken over by the New Era Movement will relieve us of much administrative and propaganda work, and give our Synodical force the opportunity to develop a program of more effective missionary work through the State.

There are many and wholly unnecessary duplications of the work in some of our communities, and these are not alone in the country, but in villages and cities as well. With good roads that obtain in most sections of the State, together with the rapid transportation facilities of our times, it seems quite unnecessary to maintain churches and ministers so near to their parishioners as back in the days of our fathers. Let the churches and the missionary authorities invest in automobiles if necessary, but let us seek to have a real field for the ministers whom we invite to take the oversight of our churches.

There is a serious and wholly unnecessary delay in the settlement both of our churches and our ministers. It may seem a small thing to a church to be without a pastor for a month or six months. Indeed some of them seem to enjoy the experience of hearing candidates, especially when they are paying about half the amount they are accustomed to pay a pastor. It is however a very serious matter with the minister. His salary does not permit him to save anything. He cannot leave one field until he has arrangements for entering another. The results are: either he remains on a field when he knows he should go, or he resigns with the prospect of six or eight months' waiting. This he cannot afford. Mr. Lloyd George speaks of the misery that comes to workers thru the "vicissitudes of unemployment." To this sentiment many a minister in the Synod of New York can respond with a hearty, or at any rate a heartfelt, Amen.

Perhaps the way to solve this difficulty may be suggested in the action of our committee at its April meeting, when at the request of the Otsego Presbytery a secretary was authorized to work among the churches and ministers, both to the end that he may guard against vacancies and that the ministers may be encouraged and assisted. Binghamton and Otsego Presbyteries combined for such service and the Rev. A. M. Forrester was engaged. Mr. Forrester works under a joint committee of the two presbyteries. His work is both of a Home Missions and a New Era nature, your committee and the New Era Movement sharing half and half in his salary and expenses. We shall ask your approval of this arrangement.

The Educational Department of the Board of Home Missions has been reorganized, and is proceeding on the assumption that the purpose of the Board is "to make America Christian for the friendly service of the world."

The immediate tasks upon which the Educational Department is working are:

1. The recruiting of men for the Home Mission field on the basis of a seven-year period of service at a minimum initial salary of $1,800.00 a year and manse or its equivalent. The seventh year of each period of service is to be devoted to study, survey work, lecturing, writing and other work in the service of the Board.

2. Providing new and interesting literature concerning the work of the missionaries in the various specialized fields of service.

3. Securing new and revised lantern slide lectures. Fifteen of such lectures have been prepared, all with colored slides.

4. Promoting schools of missions and educational work along Home Mission lines in Sunday Schools and Young People's organizations.

The Educational Department hopes that ministers and officers of Presbyterian Churches in general will make use of its services.

With the conclusion of the old order, or perhaps we might say, the Old Era in the conduct of our work, it is proper that we make some comparisons in the contributions of the Synod to Home Mission work, since the present plan came into operation.

We have been asking for Sunday School offerings for certain purposes. A comparison of Sunday School offerings for the past four years is as below:

1914-15	1915-16	1916-17	1917-18	1918-19
$2,638.99	$4,744.10	$5,302.13	$5,900.30	$7,523.04

The growth is gratifying.

Below is a table showing the offerings of the presbyteries together with the totals for the years since we entered the present arrangement with the Board of Home Missions:

It should be noted also that very considerable increase in local Home Mission contributions have been gathered in the presbyteries of Albany, Brooklyn-Nassau and Buffalo, in addition to those set out above.

It would appear therefore that there has been constant development all along the line with the exception of one year when for certain easily explained reasons the contributions were lower.

The Synodical Superintendent represented the Synod of New York at the meeting of the Home Missions Council at St. Louis, certain findings of which we are presenting herewith:

The Council rejoices in the liberal response of the churches to the appeal for increased gifts last year, and commends the Board for its management of the campaign in the face of the two-fold handicap of the influenza epidemic and the publicity of the New Era Movement. It is a matter of great satisfaction that the Board completed the year with a handsome surplus, thus materially reducing the debt accumulated during the past few years.

The Council approved the action of the Board to meet the increased cost of living in raising the standard of Home Mission support by sharing with the local congregations a definite proportion of the added amounts.

The Council reiterates its expression of previous years: "It should be the policy of the Board to maintain, in each of the cooperating Synods, a field force sufficient to adequately perform the Home Mission task." In view of the splendid returns from the New Era Drive, the Council urges the Board to provide, in Synods where reductions had to be made, for at least the same number of field men as were at work last year, if the Synods concerned so request.

The Council gave hearty endorsement to the worth of the conference between representatives of self-supporting synods and the Board, in which definite Home Mission goals were erected for City and Industrial Communities, for Rural Communities and for a Survey of the Home Mission tasks. Closer relations among self-supporting synods and with the Board are greatly needed, and the continuation of these conferences will contribute largely toward this end. A committee was appointed to confer with the Board on this matter, and to give consideration to a plan for a more comprehensive exhibit of the Home Mission work of the Church.

The policy of the Synodical organization in the matter of vacancy and supply is to cooperate just so far as the presbyteries request, but not in any event to interfere with the work of the Assembly's Vacancy and Supply Committee. There have come to us numerous requests, and we have sought to help as we were able, but the office of the Synodical Superintendent has not equipped itself or made an effort to keep such a list of ministers and vacancies as is in the Columbus office, it being our feeling that such action might appear to be an effort to take from the Assembly's Committee work which properly belongs to it. The entire organization of the Vacancy and Supply Plan looks toward Columbus. Therefore, while we have assisted in the settlement of many churches, we have made every possible effort to guard against interfering with the smooth working of the Assembly's Committee, and its general plan.

The provision of ministers with automobiles for use on the good roads through our State ought to result in the union of many churches of our own denomination. One such union has resulted during the summer in two churches, seven miles apart, both having a morning church service, and the minister writes that he was late but once during the summer, and that for only a few minutes due to tire trouble. We have many churches three or four miles apart with a good road connecting them where the service could be held in one at half-past ten o'clock and in the other at 12 o'clock without any real inconvenience to the churches. This suggestion should receive consideration by the presbyteries and the churches.

A financial statement of the expenditures for the various departments in comparison with the appropriation made by the Synod last year appears below:

	Budgets	Expended	Balance
Commissions	$39,000.00	$33,406.93	$ 5,593.07
Adirondack Work	5,500.00	6,186.04	—686.04
Administration	1,850.00	1,688.19	161.81
Church Extension	3,000.00	2,544.96	455.04
Emergency Fund	2,500.00	75.00	2,425.00
Foreign Department	1,500.00	1,169.22	330.78
Publicity	400.00	119.00	281.00
Synodical Superintendent	4,250.00	4,293.32	—43.32
	$58,000.00	$49,482.66	$8,517.34

It will be noted that the budget covered the expenditures of all the departments except those of the Adirondack Work and the Synodical Superintendent. There was a balance of $8,517.34. We are accustomed regularly to turn back to the Board of Home Missions any surplus. In view of added expense for salaries and general work projected by the Committee we are asking the Board of Home Missions to carry this balance to our account for the coming year, so that we shall have this amount to draw upon in addition to the budget adopted by the Committee in April.

The appropriations authorized by the Permanent Committee at the April meeting, and filed with the Board, are as follows:

	1916-17	1917-18	1918-19	1919-20
For Workers Commissioned by Presbyteries	$38,000.00	$40,000.00	$39,000.00	$42,000.00
For Workers Commissioned by Synod
Synodical Superintendent	4,500.00	4,250.00	4,250.00	4,500.00
Foreign Work	3,000.00	3,000.00	1,500.00	3,500.00
Adirondack Work	5,500.00	5,500.00	5,500.00	5,500.00
Church Extension	2,500.00	3,000.00	3,000.00	4,000.00
Administration Expenses	1,850.00	2,100.00	1,850.00	2,200.00
Publicity	400.00	400.00	400.00	400.00
Emergency	5,000.00	2,500.00	2,500.00	7,500.00
	$60,800.00	$60,800.00	$58,050.00	$71,300.00

It is the policy of your Committee to cooperate as closely as possible with the New Era Movement in its work thruout the Synod. We have already made an arrangement as noted above in the case of the presbyteries of Binghamton and Otsego. It is possible that similar arrangements may be made in other presbyteries where desired.

The Assembly has endorsed the InterChurch World Movement and directed the New Era Movement to contribute toward the support of its work. Our Home Board and Foreign Board are pioneers in this movement, and this Committee will expect to cooperate, especially in the matter of the survey looking toward the Home Mission budget and program.

Mr. Huntington has resigned his connection with our Synodical force that he may direct the survey of the rural communities of the state. Your chairman received a request from the InterChurch office, asking that the Superintendent be loaned for the purpose of directing the survey of the cities of New York and New Jersey. After correspondence with the members of the Permanent Committee and receiving nothing but favorable replies, an arrangement was entered into whereby the InterChurch organization would provide an assistant for the Superintendent as well as meet the other expenses incidental to the enlargement of his office, so that he might undertake this survey. This arrangement was made with the expectation that Mr. Mackey's work as Superintendent would not suffer. He has been able to secure as his assistant, to promote the work of the Superintendent and the work of the survey, the Rev. John Bailey Kelly, of the Home Mission Board Force. We shall ask you to endorse this action. We shall also ask you to accept the resignation of Mr. Huntington.

With the limitations that have been laid upon our force during the year we have not been in position to stress the work for foreign people as it deserves.

We are continuing the Italian work in Schenectady under the leadership of Mr. Neyroz. A deaconess also is supported by the First Presbyterian Church. The outstanding feature of this work is the varied and wide acquaintance of Mr. Neyroz with the Italians of the City, the close supervision that is being given to the work by a strong Committee of Presbyterians, and the interest shown in a Daily Vacation Bible School which was conducted for six weeks. Having planned for about 30 pupils the management was swamped with some 150 to 200 who sought to attend. We are confident that another year will see a very much larger Daily Vacation Bible School in Schenectady.

A very substantial Italian work is doing in Endicott under the direction of Mr. Carlucci, who also assists in the mission at Binghamton where Mrs. Brooks is directing the work. At Endicott the work is of such a substantial character that the Endicott Johnson Company have contributed to its support, and a lot has been secured with the hope of a building in the near future.

Brooklyn Presbytery centers its work in four or five points, and a large opportunity seems to be developing in the neighborhood of the Mount Olivet Church among the Italians of that community. Here also a building and staff equipment are necessary. In Brooklyn Presbytery a Jewish Mission, known as the East New York Neighborhood House, is working up to the limits of its possibilities, both as to quarters and workers. It is rather heart-breaking to look at the opportunity that there is for work in such a section as this, and be reminded that one or two workers are all that the church seems able to provide for this immense company of Hebrews, not a few of whom are ready to hear the Gospel.

Under the wise supervision of Dr. Nicolls and the excellent leadership of Mr. Giordano, the Italian work at Auburn seems to have settled to good substantial work. There is an average attendance at services of 43, at Sunday School, 53. Young People's meeting 23. A strong Scout troop, also an athletic and social club of young men are some of the activities which engaged the Auburn Mission, together with the boys' and girls' classes.

Hudson Presbytery is continuing its work at Middletown and Nyack for the Italians. Dr. Wight has returned from his service in France, and brings back his keen interest for the Italian brethren. The removal of Mr. Neyroz to Schenectady caused the work at Middletown to suffer somewhat, but it is hoped that the present year will see it flourishing as formerly.

In Rochester the work of Mr. Salastin among the Ukrainians has developed to a point where he reports a considerable number of members and a constant and deep interest in the work.

Utica Presbytery has its mission for the Italians in Rome which has been conducted thru the year by Mr. Biagio Isgro, a student of Colgate College. The Rev. Mr. Perrotta of Utica, who is in charge of the Baptist mission for the Italians there, has given no little assistance to our work at Rome, and our Committee takes this opportunity to expressing our appreciation of his service.

The table printed in the Appendix to this report shows the wide work that is being done for foreign people by the Synod. And yet, however large it may be it is a mere bagatelle compared with what could be done and should be done by our great Synod for the newcomers in our state.

The lumber camp work has been conducted with a full force thruout the year. During the period of the war, the workers were largely of the unskilled and foreign class. Now, Mr. Maddox reports, a better class of working men are returning. The prohibition of liquor, or rather the change in the strength of the drink that is sold, is showing its effect upon the men. It is hoped that with the coming of complete prohibition there will be better times for the Lumber Jacks.

During the year, aside from the Secretary Mr. Maddox, Mr. Mason, Mr. Atwood, Mr. Logan and Mr. McKichan have been regularly at work. Mr. Reed returned to the Mission the first of April, and has been there thru the month of September. On the advice of the Secretary and the Superintendent he has withdrawn from the work to enter Union College, and there is therefore a vacancy in the force which we hope may be supplied during the coming year.

The Superintendent and Secretary Maddox met with representatives from the presbyteries of Utica, Champlain, and St. Lawrence to discuss the general interest of the Adirondack field. The following action was taken:

1. That we request each presbytery having interest in the Adirondack Lumber Camp work, to appoint one of its members, who with Mr. Maddox will serve as a Committee on Adirondack Work. This Committee will be expected to take up and consider any changes in the present plan of work, meet with and advise the Secretary from time to time as to the conduct of the work, and receive a report which can be passed on to the presbyteries at least once each year, so that they may be fully advised as to the nature and extent of the work of the Lumber Camp Mission.

II. In view of the InterChurch World Movement Survey, it is the judgment of the representatives that the presbyteries should offer to provide such religious services for the unchurched portion of the Adirondack field as the InterChurch Committees judge will be adequate for the religious needs of these communities.

III. The unification of the entire work in the Adirondacks seems not to be feasible, but it is the judgment of the Committee that we should recommend to the Synod's Committee that the services of Mr. Maddox, in cooperation with the Committee proposed above, should be offered to the presbyteries for such supervision of churches and preaching stations within the bounds of the respective presbyteries as in their judgment would be of the best service to their work.

There is little to report in the matter of church extension, except that Mr. Dean after his absence of about a year, returned to this country and to his work in August. He has been employed at Old Forge and in certain congregations in the Presbytery of St. Lawrence up to the present time.

Mr. McFarland spent the greater part of the year at Westminster Church, Hornell. We were able to secure a minister to enter the pulpit the Sunday after Mr. McFarland withdrew, and there come to us very excellent reports both of Mr. McFarland's work and of the church since his withdrawal. During the months of August and September he has been engaged in Hillsdale in the Presbytery of Columbia. During the month of October he is to begin work in the Presbytery of Binghamton.

On the instruction of the Committee at its meeting in April, the Superintendent engaged a secretary for the work in the Presbytery of Otsego, and took the liberty of combining that work with similar work in the Presbytery of Binghamton, and the further liberty of combining this with the New Era work—all with the advice of the chairman and the presbyteries concerned. The Rev. A. M. Forrester of Otsego Presbytery was engaged as Secretary, and began his work the first of September. He thus becomes a member of the Church Extension force. The New Era Committee divides his service expense on a half and half basis.

Our plans for the coming year are to conduct our departments as vigorously as possible, but we shall not undertake new work until the survey of the InterChurch World Movement shall have been made. On account of the work which will engage us there, no definite program can be made, except that we continue the work that we are doing with all possible vigor.

Our general recommendations are:

First, that presbyteries give their very closest supervision to all Home Mission work within their bounds and especially if it be work among foreign people.

Our second recommendation is that we must continue by every possible effort to combine the work in the small fields, that ministers may have somewhere near an adequate support, and to this end the authority of presbyteries must be exercised wherever necessary. All of which is respectfully submitted.

G. P. CONARD, Chairman
